From,

D. Devaraj Avl BSE:
Deputy Commissioner
Bangalore District.

To,

B.K. Venkatavaradacharyengar Esqr:
Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Revenue & General Departments.

Sir, With reference to Government order No. 7341-3 / Med (84-05)-14 of the 16th January/06, Flag A observing that C. Tangavelu Moodliar, 3rd Accountant of this Office is not entitled to the concessions allowable under Government-Order No. 5737-80 / Med. 84-05-7 Flag B, Share full dated the 30th November 1905, to officials proceeding to Kasauli for treatment, for the reason that the individual named above does not appear to have been been bitten by dog while in the execution of his public duty, I have the honor to submit his case for the kind reconsideration of Government for the following reasons

Of the two classes of officials, executive and non-executive, the very nature of the appointment of the former class obliges the holder to be out-of doors in many instances. When he is called to particular place by some such business his going thereto is to be considered as only the direct means of his doing his duty, thus rendering that act of his as done in the execution of public duty. A clerk on his way to office is in a similar position. That is the necessary means to discharge his public duty.

2. Considering the Government Order of 30th November in that manner I allowed the office accountant, the

Flag R

Concession granted by Government.
I venture to submit that the clerical portion of poorly paid public servants can have otherwise no benefit from the concession so generously granted by Government.

3. However, as the official has proceeded to Kasauli and placed himself under the treatment having depended chiefly on the Government help, I request the grant made to him may be kindly approved. I beg to add that the Chief Engineer's proposal on which the order in question was passed lends support to my interpretation inasmuch as the concession given to poor persons is requested by him to be extended to the poorly paid officials as a class.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

W Lumsden
for Deputy Commissioner.
